The Challenge of Change

Participating in 'the liturgy is the summit toward which the activity of the Church is directed ...

... at the same time it is the fount from which the Church's power flows.'

Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy 10

The dismissal

- Go forth, the Mass is ended
- Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord
- Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life
- Go in peace

The Dismissal

‘They feel indebted to their brothers and sisters because of what they have received in the celebration.’

‘When you come together, it is not really to eat the Lord’s Supper.’

1 Cor 11: 20

The Body of Christ

'Many grains are gathered into one ...

Many grapes hang in the cluster ...

Christ has 'consecrated the mystery of our peace and unity upon His table.'

Augustine

The Body of Christ

'All who fail to keep the bond of peace after entering this mystery receive not a sacrament that benefits them, but an accusation that condemns them.'

Augustine

The Body of Christ

Be a member of the body of Christ so that your
"Amen" may be true.'

Augustine

Send forth

'The one who is the body of Christ you treat with shame, and when dying, neglect.'

This altar may you see lying everywhere, both in the lanes and in market places, and may you sacrifice upon it every hour; for on this too is sacrifice performed.'

John Chrysostom

Send forth

“Can we make this Year of the Eucharist an occasion for diocesan and parish communities to commit themselves to responding with fraternal solicitude to one of the many forms of poverty in our world? The tragedy of hunger ... the loneliness of the elderly ... the hardship of the unemployed ... the struggles of immigrants.

Send forth

We cannot delude ourselves: by our concern for those in need we will be recognised as true followers of Christ.

This will be the criterion by which the authenticity of our Eucharistic celebrations is judged.”

Mane Nobiscum: John Paul II
