

E3 2012

Enlighten...Enrich...Empower

Ephesians 1:18-19

Friday 2nd – Sunday 4th March 2012
The Collaroy Centre
Homestead Ave Collaroy NSW 2097

CWCI Sydney Women's Weekend

Be Fruitful

It is well known that a branch cut off from the plant is destined to die.

So Jesus' story of the vine and the branches in John 15 (verses 1-17) is relevant to everyone.

While a fruitless branch will be pruned and thrown away, a branch remaining on the vine will bear fruit.

But what does it really mean when Jesus says 'remain in me'?

Naomi Reed will speak on the need for abiding, pruning and loving.

Come to E3 2012 and be enlightened, enriched and empowered as we explore being fruitful in God's garden.

Bookshop provided by Steps Christian Bookshop

Friday 2nd – Sunday 4th March 2012
The Collaroy Centre, located on the Northern Beaches, has spectacular panoramic views of the ocean and is easily reached by public transport.

Speakers

Naomi Reed

Keynote Speaker

Naomi Reed is a Christian writer and speaker who grew up in Sydney. She and her husband, Darren, trained as physiotherapists. During their time serving in Nepal with INF/Interserve, Naomi wrote her first book, 'My Seventh Monsoon'. Now back in Sydney Naomi continues to write, speak and study, enjoying family life with Darren and their three sons.

Sarah Plummer

Afternoon elective speaker

Sarah has been involved in many ministries over the past 21 years. At present she is Director of Prayer Ministries at World Vision International and among other things serves with the Lausanne Intercession Working Group. Sarah is married to Craig and has two beautiful daughters, Anastasia and Kalista. She loves a good Chai Latte, a good book and time with her family.

Emily Carpenter

Morning elective speaker

Emily was born in Malaysia where her parents were missionaries. When she was seven the family moved to Sydney. She has just begun to work in her church part time as an Assistant Minister, after having been at Moore Theological College for the past four years. Emily is married to Mark.

Diane Porter

Friday night Bible teaching

Diane Porter recently completed a Bachelor of Ministry after returning from the mission field, having been a missionary in Lima, Peru for six years with her husband, Edwin and daughter, Lizzy. She enjoys long walks in the country, playing the piano and teaching the Bible.

CWCI is a worldwide Bible-based ministry which began in Australia in 1957 with a small group of women who went away for a weekend of Bible teaching.

- Local CWCI events held in cities and country areas offer encouragement, inspiration and Bible teaching.
- Know Your Bible studies are used regularly by women in over 2300 KYB groups in Australia. Studies are also available in more than 45 different languages and are used in over 70 countries around the world.
- CWCI Safaris travel into remote areas of Australia with Christ's love and teaching.
