

Stockton success

A student from St Peter's Stockton has been awarded a University of NSW Medal for his outstanding success in this year's Computer Competition.

Alex Gore scored the highest mark in the competition and considering that there were approximately 9,500 Year 5 participants, this is an exceptional result.

Alex travelled to Sydney with his parents to be presented with his medal on Friday, 26 November. Congratulations Alex.

