

St Dominic's meets the challenge

On Monday 22 November, three students from St Dominic's Centre for Hearing Impaired Children travelled to Sydney for the Premier's Reading Challenge Reception. The Premier's Reading Challenge (PRC) aims to encourage in students a love of reading for leisure and pleasure, and to enable students to experience quality literature. It is not a competition but a challenge to each student to read, to read more and to read more widely.

After meeting the challenge students from St Dominic's were invited to the reception where Premier Kristina Keneally, author Ursula Dubosarsky, illustrator Kim Gamble, author Duncan Ball and Grug were among the dignitaries and celebrities.

Students Ellyse Nichols, Sophie Relf and Lachlan McLean meet the Premier at the PRC Reception.

St Dom's student, Lachlan McLean, has his book signed by author Ursula Dubosarsky.
