

Aurora out next week

The September edition of our monthly magazine Aurora will be out in The Newcastle Herald and Maitland Mercury on Tuesday 6 September; in The Scone Advocate on Thursday 8 September and in The Manning River Times, The Muswellbrook Chronicle and The Singleton Argus on Friday 9 September. Mark your calendar now!

Our cover story features World Youth Day pilgrims who have now returned from Madrid, Spain, with plenty to tell. Emma Blackford recounts her story and we have lots of photos depicting locals' experience of the 26th World Youth Day.

We update you on the story of Jerome Rugaruza who has been reunited with his wife and four children, although sadly, three children remain in Burundi.

Michael Elphick offers a thought provoking reflection on the realities underlying the London riots.

Dementia Awareness Week begins on 16 September and Aurora has two stories highlighting different aspects of this insidious condition.

Finally, Brian Doyle and Steve Britt reflect on Father's Day in ways which are evocative and touching.

There is so much more to read so don't miss your copy of the September Aurora!
