

Aurora out this week

The August edition of our monthly magazine Aurora will be out in The Newcastle Herald and Maitland Mercury today, Tuesday 2 August; in The Scone Advocate on Thursday 4 August and in The Manning River Times, The Muswellbrook Chronicle and The Singleton Argus on Friday 5 August. Please support our diocesan magazine by picking up a copy of your local paper this week.

Our cover story features a young teacher who has just returned from a stint in a Tanzanian secondary school. Ben Frize's reflections on education are well worth reading.

Our schools are full of talented students and Aurora profiles just two – James Farnham, dancer extraordinaire, and Lachlan Bent, athlete extraordinaire.

National Grief Awareness Week begins on 25 August. Irene Dixon offers practical suggestions to help assist grieving children, based on her experience as a mother, a nurse and a minister to the bereaved, and Shirley McHugh shares her thoughts, nineteen years after her son was murdered.

Maria Chapple shares her role as a Pastoral Care Worker at Holy Spirit Primary School Kurri Kurri and Elroy Aguiar anticipates his visit to Madrid for World Youth Day 2011.

There is so much more to read so don't miss your copy of the August Aurora!

If you do miss out you can always read Aurora online at www.mn.catholic.org.au.
