

Calling upon our diocesan youth

Young people are invited to attend

Camp Dio 2010

Adults are invited to form a team to assist in the organising and supervision of this once a year camp.

WHAT: Camp Dio – a fully supervised Outdoor Education Experience with some time for reflection.

WHO: For any person from Years 6 to 12 who are engaged in the life of the Parish.

WHEN: Friday 3rd December, 3.30pm until Sunday 5th December, 8.00pm.

WHERE: the Bush Camp at Tea Gardens.
Activities include canoeing, high and low rope challenges, climbing, beach, archery, abseiling, self-achievement and initiative exercises, rafting and beach walks.

In the evening there are talks on aspects of life and reflections.

WHY: This camp is designed for young people who are connected to the life of the parish and who wish to meet up with like-minded people from around the diocese.

They are able to spend time having fun socially while engaging on some of the deeper issues that life presents to them at this stage of their lives, especially for those who are trying to live their faith in a committed way.

COST: $165 for accommodation, activities and meals.

RSVP: By 19th November, 2010 to Denis Paget.

This camp has been running in the Diocese for 10 years.

If you are interested or would like to know more please contact or Denis Paget on 6572 3430 or email denpag@bigpond.net.au