Student Accommodation within the University of Sydney

To the Parish Priest

Sancta Sophia College is a residential college for undergraduate women and post-graduate men and women studying at universities in Sydney. The College is situated in the grounds of the University of Sydney, putting it at the heart of Sydney academic life and at the heart of the city of Sydney.

The philosophy of the College is to educate the whole person – the overall university experience, not just classroom learning, determines the richness of student life and provides the true preparation for future life.

We believe that Sancta Sophia College offer your students a unique, supportive environment to live during their university studies. If possible, please include the below Sancta Sophia College Notice in your next School Newsletter to inform students and their families who may be looking for accommodation in Sydney in 2011.
