

Q & A with Father Anthony Coloma

Free Online Event

Wednesday November 25

Time: 6.30pm – 8pm

What does the Church teach us about forgiving others?

Why is going to confession important? Can it stop us from sinning?

What does being 'moral' mean?

How can the teachings of the Church help us make moral choices about these 'real life' situations?

What are some practical ways we can improve our skills (and our children's skills) in forgiveness?

Why is forgiveness so hard?

How can I guide my children to make moral choices?

What is the best way to explain sin to my child?

Does God still love us when we sin?

Father Anthony Coloma answers some difficult questions about moral choices, sin and forgiveness.

Join us as we explore questions about making moral choices in a contemporary society where there are varying views on major issues such as war, marriage, immigration, sexuality, politics and religion etc.

Confession and sin where there are varying opinions on what 'sin' means and if the sacrament of confession actually 'wipes the slate clean' or makes you 'right' with God.

Forgiveness is an area that we all struggle with, particularly if someone has intentionally hurt or injured others or the people they love. Christians often believe they should be able to forgive instantly and feel guilty when forgiveness is not so forthcoming.

To register scan QR code or use the link

Q & A with Father Anthony Coloma

For more information email formed@mn.catholic.org.au