

PATHWAYS TO MINISTRY

Foreword | Teresa Brierley

For as in one body we have many members, and all the members do not have the same function so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them ... (Romans 12:4-6)

You find yourself at a point in your life, where there appear to be many options, or maybe none are presently apparent to you. People are asking of you; “what are you going to do with your life?” You may even be experiencing a sense excitement of what lies ahead or there may be confusion and fear. How do people work out (discern) the best pathway for them? What might the Catholic Church have to offer you I hear you ask!

We believe that each person has a calling, something specific that God calls us to. The language we frequently use in the church is vocation. God invites us to live a particular vocation based on the gifts given to us.

The Pastoral Placement Program provides young people with the opportunity to explore their God-given gifts in a safe and nurturing environment. We are looking for people whose life circumstances, personal background, interests, relationships, and God given gifts lead them to exploring what it might mean to proclaim Christ.

This is an exciting opportunity to discern the voice of the Spirit in your life and to share your gifts, hopes and ideas as a source of renewal for yourself and your local church.

It is hoped that by engaging with this program you will experience a real encounter with Jesus Christ which may lead to the discovery of a personal vocation and to full participation in the life of the Church or within the community.

This year-long program is about self-discovering in the company of others. Who are you called to be and then what does this lead you to do? Life is about finding meaning and purpose and the Pastoral Placement Program provides participants with the opportunity to explore their purpose through a number of formation opportunities while experiencing work/ministry in several settings across our diocese.

Please read on and be open to the possibilities that lie before you and us. Since 2015 I have really loved journeying with those who have stepped across the threshold of the Pastoral Placement Program. I have been privileged to encounter their growth as people who want to make a difference by being engaged in the life of their local communities.

Prayer...

Grace and peace be yours in abundance through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

– 2 Peter 1:2

Christ Has No Body...

Christ has no body but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
Compassion on this world,
Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good,
Yours are the hands, with which he blesses all the world.
Yours are the hands, yours are the feet,
Yours are the eyes, you are his body.
Christ has no body now but yours,
No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
Yours are the eyes with which he looks
compassion on this world.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

Our Vision

To live the joy of the Gospel and share it with the world.

Our Mission

The Diocesan Synod of 1992-93, acting on behalf of the diocesan community, resolved to embrace and promote the Vatican II understanding of the Church's mission contained in the following:

The Church, because it is the People of God and the Body of Christ enlivened by his Spirit, is called to be a sign and instrument of communion with God and of unity among all people (LG1).

The Church exists to promote the Kingdom of God on earth (LG5).

This it does by proclaiming Christ – the Good News of God's love for all people – and by working in the world for justice, peace and reconciliation.

This mission finds its source and summit in the Eucharist (LG11) which, when lived in everyday life and celebrated in the liturgy, is both the living symbol of Christ's life, death and resurrection and celebrates the deepest identity of the Church as a communion of life, love and truth (LG9).

All those who, through baptism, have been initiated into the community of the Church, have the right and duty to participate in its life and mission as a response to the Spirit in their lives (LG3).

We are called to live out the commandment of Jesus: 'Love one another as I have loved you' (Jn 15:12).

Pastoral Goals

The Synod, acting on behalf of the diocesan community, accepted the following as our diocesan pastoral goals:

- ▶ That we, the Church of the Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle, be recognised as a visible and credible sign and instrument of communion with God and of unity among all people (LG1).
- ▶ That in every parish of the diocese all the baptised have the opportunity and formation to make their contribution to the life and mission of the Church.
- ▶ That all members of the diocesan community – young and old, poor and rich, weak and strong, clergy, religious and laity, individuals, families and institutions – be recognised as working together to meet the spiritual and pastoral needs of God's people.

These goals, vision and mission were underpinned by a set of theological principles which the Diocesan Synod used as the basis of our life together and our pastoral planning activities.

The Five Foundations of Church and Ministry Life

FOUNDATION 1: Identity and Community

- ▶ Fosters Christian community, hospitality, welcome and respect – an identity ground in ‘communio’.

FOUNDATION 2: Worship and Prayer

- ▶ Gathers people for prayer, sacrament and liturgical celebration... is Eucharistic in life and worship.

FOUNDATION 3: Formation and Education

- ▶ Facilitates spiritual growth and promotes empowerment through education and formation.

FOUNDATION 4: Mission and Outreach

- ▶ Engages people in the transformation of society – outreach through mercy and justice – to build the kingdom of God.

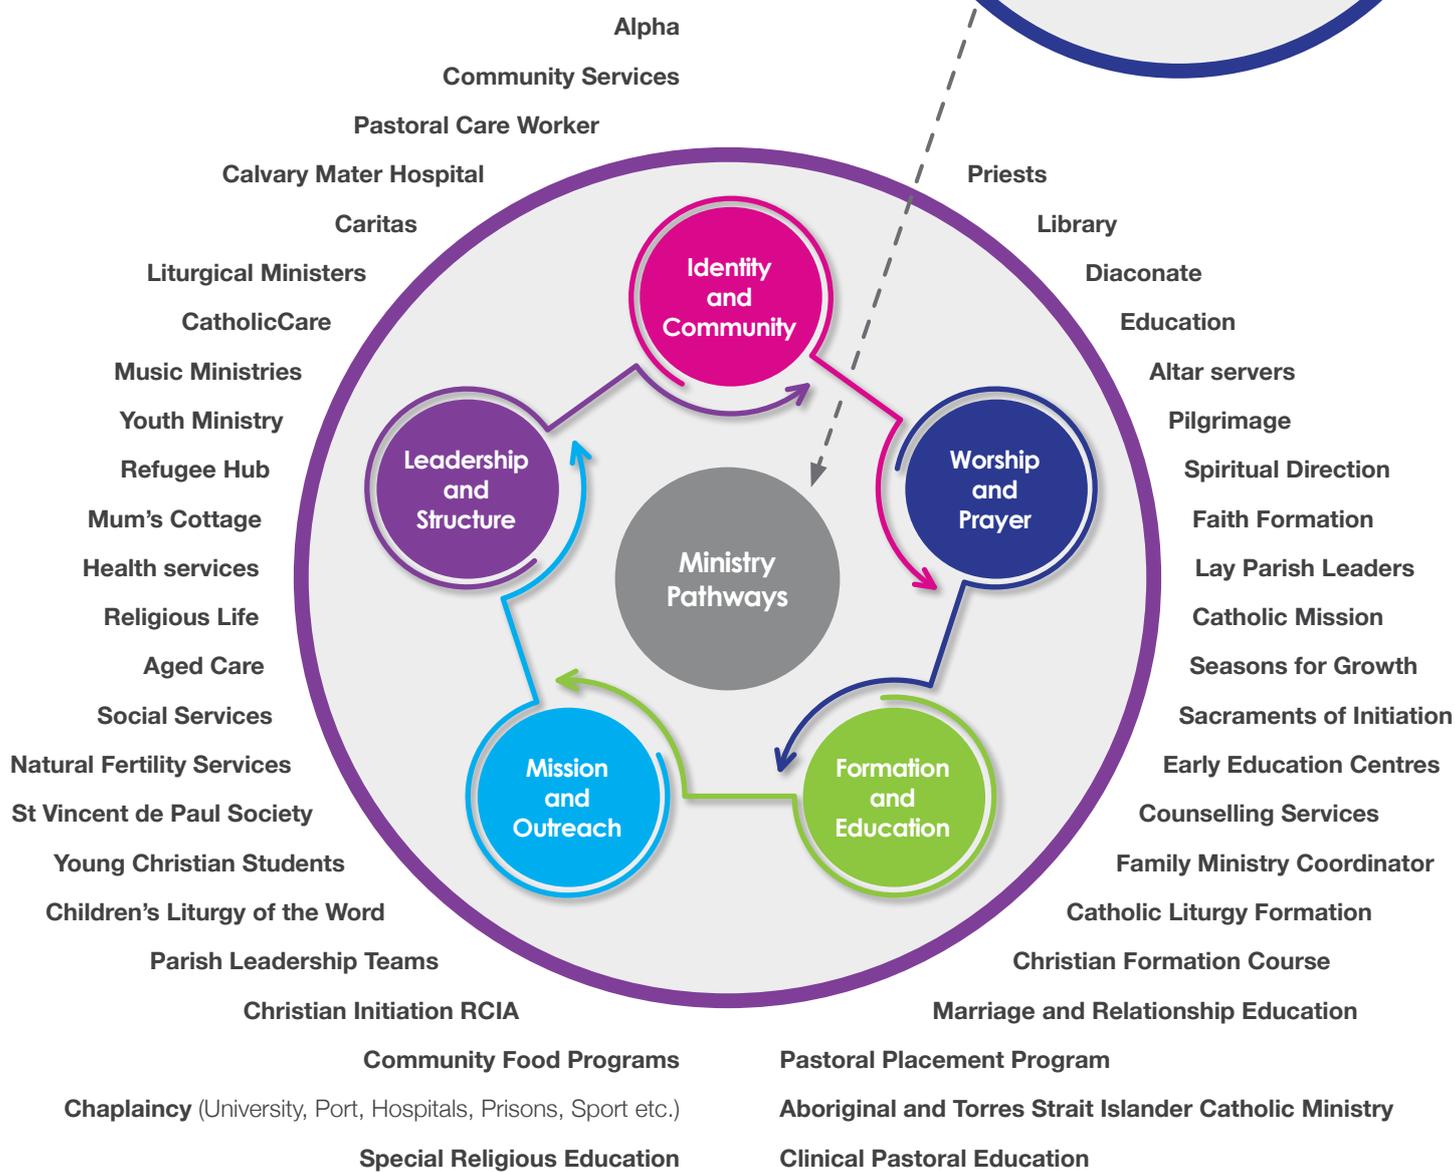

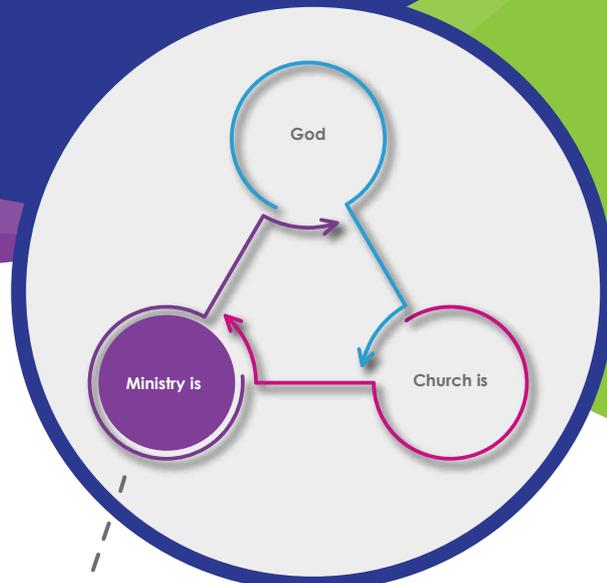

FOUNDATION 5: Leadership and Structure

- ▶ Fosters effective Christian leadership, communication, organisational and maintenance structures.

Which foundation calls you?

Where are they now? Sam Hill

What was your most memorable experience?

I don't think I can pinpoint just one memorable experience because the whole year was amazing however being a part of the PPP community and building friendships throughout the year with other participants was extremely special and to all be experiencing the same things together, but differently, allowed us as a group to reflect, grow and mature together.

One experience I will never forget was the final day of our program in 2015. As a group we spent the morning together in prayer before sharing with one another about our individual projects we worked on to develop and implement. Each participant's project was connected to a placement experience that had inspired each of us and therefore called us to action. Sharing these projects with one another, hearing the success of the implementation process, and finishing off with afternoon tea with representatives from all the agencies that accompanied us through this inaugural year, was a wonderful showing of community spirit and a fabulous way to finish out the year.

What is a life lesson that stuck with you beyond the Pastoral Placement Program?

It does not matter how mundane or little the task is we may do because every action we do makes a difference to someone somewhere whether we know it or not.

How did your relationship with God mature and develop?

The PPP enabled me to further grow in my faith with like minded individuals and explore together where we might be being called. Through the different placement opportunities I was able to see and experience the Spirit working in so many ways through individuals, through different agencies and through the day to day encounters. The encounter experiences I had during my year as a participant allowed me to understand more fully how God is working through us to serve Christ in those we meet and how all this occurs, more fully, outside of the building that we gather in for worship.

What position do you currently hold now and how has the Pastoral Placement Program influenced this career pathway?

After completing the PPP in 2015 I went on to work with the Diocese as a Family Ministry Coordinator until late 2019 before taking up the role of Director of Mission with the St Vincent de Paul Society Queensland. My time as both a participant and supervisor with the PPP certainly allowed myself to develop a love for social justice and through the range of placement opportunities offered in the program, helped to equip me with the grass roots knowledge of the importance of how witnessing our faith authentically is so vital in whatever we do. I can pinpoint a moment from each placement opportunity I experienced that has in some way shaped how I do my ministry but also how I live life.

Where are they now? Shane Hyland

My time in the Pastoral Placement Program transformed the way I perceived my contribution to the wider church community.

The ability to visit the many Catholic agencies that took part in the program opened my eyes to the diversity of career options available for those who want to contribute to society from a Catholic worldview. My experience with the Port Chaplains at the Mission for Seafarers was formative in that it helped me to understand the pastoral needs of those who are not necessarily able to consistently access the sacraments or a suitable qualified person with whom to have a pastoral conversation. The joy, satisfaction, and gratitude that the seafarers conveyed to me over that short time reinforced my decision to change careers and to take on some more challenging roles in the service of others. A discernment process followed which culminated in taking on a part time role as a Prison Chaplain. The Chaplaincy, which was one day a week, enabled me to develop my skills in pastoral ministry whilst I continued to discern a calling to the Permanent Diaconate and undertake a Master of Teaching.

I have since entered formation for the Permanent Diaconate in my home diocese and have taken up the role of Religious Studies Leader of Learning at All Saints' College, St Mary's Campus in Maitland.

Overall, the opportunities that the Pastoral Placement Program provided are unlike any other discernment program available in Australia. The skills I have acquired, the experiences I have had and the discernment process with which I have engaged, have helped me to understand my purpose in the building of God's Kingdom and to contribute to society whilst staying true to my Catholic identity.

Diocesan Council for Ministry with Young People

Council for Ministry with Young People

www.facebook.com/MNcatholicyouth

The Diocesan Council for Ministry with Young People (DCMYP) serves as an advisory body to the Bishop with the mission to help foster a passionate, imaginative and vibrant community of faith-filled people.

We help to plan a series of events and initiatives that offer young people the opportunity for faith formation, spiritual growth, mission and outreach opportunities and faith-filled life experiences. These include Pints with a Purpose, Thread Day, Sacred@Seven and Pilgrimages to the Australian Catholic Youth Festival and World Youth Day.

Pints with a Purpose

Pints with a Purpose is held every first Monday of the month. We gather for a catch up at a local hotel for some pub grub 6.30pm followed by a presentation from a guest speaker. The talks begin at 7pm and finish with an interactive time of Q&A.

Guest speakers talk on a range of different topics from presentations that delve deeper into an aspect of our catholic faith, exploring vocation and discernment, personal testimonies, to discussions on mental health, bioethics, modern slavery and presentations which inspire a call to action and advocacy in areas of social and ecological justice.

Thread Day

Thread Day provides an opportunity for a retreat experience on a Saturday, a time to draw aside from the busyness of work or study to enjoy hospitality, a time of prayer and engaging in presentations and discussions with other like-minded young people.

Talks and workshops on the day follow themes that are geared towards personal development in areas such as faith formation, mental health awareness, faith & fitness, theology of the body, social & ecological justice, worship & prayer, art and music.

Sacred@Seven

Sacred@Seven is held on the second Wednesday of each month. The event attracts young people for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament with a time for prayer, a reading of the gospel and a time for reflection both in silence and with music.

Sacred@Seven is an opportunity for young people to draw aside in a judgement free space; exploring the hidden treasures of spending time together with each other and with the Lord and allowing the word of God to speak to hearts.

World Youth Day

World Youth Day (WYD) gathers millions of young people together from places across the world to a chosen host city; with the purpose of celebrating faith, in the name of Jesus Christ.

The first official WYD was held in 1986 in Rome with Pope John Paul II. Since then it has become not just a single day but a whole week of festivities, fun and spiritual enrichment; culminating in a final mass with the Pope and millions of young people.

WYD typically takes place every two to three years and the next World Youth Day will be held in Lisbon, Portugal in 2023.

UoN Catholic Society

www.facebook.com/UoNCatholic

If you would like to explore your faith in a judgement free zone, you will find a great group of people at the UoN Catholic Society. We meet regularly on campus to organise events, eat food, play sports, grow in faith, pray, celebrate Mass and do outreach together. We also offer connections to serve people on campus and in the wider community.

There are three Catholic Chaplains on Campus who are available for support and spiritual care. The Chaplaincy Centre is in room G03 Building V, Callaghan Campus. Fr Camillus who is a young priest and one of the Catholic Chaplains celebrates Mass each Wednesday at 12.15pm. Feel free to drop in at any time for a chat.

Australian Catholic Youth Festival

The Australian Catholic Youth Festival (ACYF) is a national gathering of young people from across Australia (Year 9-30 years).

ACYF provides young people with opportunities to deepen their relationship with Jesus, be empowered to be disciples in the world today and encounter and celebrate the vitality of the Church in Australia.

ACYF offers a 'mini WYD' experience with engaging talks and workshops presented by some of the most sort after Catholic guest speakers and musicians. The first ACYF was held in Melbourne followed by Adelaide, Sydney and Perth. The Diocese of Maitland-Newcastle has sent pilgrims to each of these events which take place every two years. The next host city for ACYF will be announced soon.
