Ode to the Light of Christ

Come, let us walk in the Light of the Lord.
Let us not fear the past
when our hearts were heavy. (Is. 2:5)
Let us Shine the Light of Christ.

Come, let us bring light from the darkness.
Let us make evil good and find sweet in the bitter. (Is. 5:20)
Let us Shine the Light of Christ.

Come, let us weep together
when the light grew dark with the clouds,
from the darkness and distress. (Is. 5:30)
Let us Shine the Light of Christ.

Come, let us walk with our brothers and sisters,
those who have walked in darkness. (Is. 9:2)
Let them see the great Light of God and let us Shine the Light of Christ.

Introduction

All our resources for the Perpetual Day of Remembrance are available on the diocesan website. (Click on the Prayer Response '+') They include:

- The parish resource which focuses on Perpetual Day of Remembrance Sunday, marked in parishes on the weekend of 14 – 15 September.
- A resource for schools
- Station of the Cross – We Lament and We Hope – available as a Master Order of Service, a People's Booklet and a PowerPoint
- Background and Timeline of the development of the Perpetual Day of Remembrance simplified as a one-page diagram.
- This resource for agencies, groups, households and individuals.

We hope this resource provides enough prayer options to accommodate the rich diversity of people and groups who wish to and need to pray in response to our Church's tragic experience of sexual abuse.

Central to our Catholic faith is the scriptural imperative: where one member of the Body of Christ suffers, we all suffer. [1 Cor 12:26]

So let those of us who can pray, do so, wherever and however we are most comfortable. Let us pray that we will be changed as we continue to engage in the daily process of conversion so that we live more truly in the light of God's love.

From the following options we hope you find one that enables you to pray.

In the Light of Your Love

This prayer is one of the permanent elements of the Perpetual Day of Remembrance. You might like to light a candle and pray it.

God with us,
you have made us in your image,
and filled us with the breath of your divine life.
Through the life of Jesus
you show us the way to live in the light of your love.

Create a clean heart in us O God.

Where people are disempowered
may we shine the light of your justice.
Where there is privilege and prestige
may we shine the light of your humility.
Where there is dishonesty and denial
may we shine the light of your truth.
Where transparency is lacking, and agendas are hidden,
may we shine the light of your integrity.
Where there is fear

may we shine the light of your courage.
Where there is judgement
may we shine the light of your compassion.
Where there is disrespect
may we shine the light of your love.
Where people feel silenced
may we shine the light of your word.
Where people feel excluded
may we shine the light of your acceptance.
Where there is sin
may we shine the light of your forgiveness.

Create a clean heart in us O God.

Music and song options

Sometimes listening to songs or hymns or music is our prayer.

- A Rightful Place by Steve Angrisano.
- 10,000 Reasons \(Bless the Lord\) by Steve Angrisano. This one is not as strongly connected but might work for you.
- The Commons: Christ our Light has Come by Steve Angrisano and Curtis Stephan. The immediate context for this one is Christmas. It picks up the strong PDoR themes of light and darkness. It provides an opportunity to reflect on the deep truth that the cradle and the cross are all part of the one Paschal Mystery of Christ.
- We Turn To You by Michael Mangan.
- If Not Now by Carrie Newcomer. The song is about a change of heart.
- We Sing for Those Whose Song is Silent by John Bell. Thanks to Anne Millard, Cath Mahony and the Communications Team it is available on the diocesan website in two forms: video and audio file.
- Zimmerman Service Healing and Support have worked with Elizabeth Seysener, a survivor from the Clergy Abused Network (CAN), and Composer David Banney, to commission a piece of music titled 'The Innocents'. There is a recording available on the diocesan website as an audio file.

'Ode to the Light of Christ'

Found on p 3. This can be used for personal or communal prayer, or as part of a more formal prayer. If the latter, in keeping with the traditional way we proclaim an Ode, for example on Anzac Day, we recommend that it be read by one person and listened to by the community.

Sunday Mass for September 15 (including the Saturday night Vigil)

In 2024, Perpetual Day of Remembrance Sunday falls on Sunday September 15.

As a community of faith, we can do nothing better than bring the diocesan Perpetual Day of Remembrance to our celebration of Eucharist; to join our story of abuse and suffering to Christ's offering, that the light of the Paschal Mystery will convert our hearts and lead us forward in faith and hope.

If you would like to join in a parish Mass on this weekend you are most welcome.

Healing and Support

The Zimmerman Service Healing and Support Team provides support and assistance to survivors and their relatives. To engage with this service please call 49230636 or email ZimmermanService@healingandsupport.org.au.

To commemorate Perpetual Day of Remembrance 2024, Zimmerman House at 5 Selma St, Newcastle West will be open to survivors and relatives from 2-4pm on Thursday 12 September for those who wish to drop in. Please see the flyer for further details.

The Healing and Support Team are also available should our prayer response cause distress for any person, please make contact as above.

Conclusion

This year we are not using the usual review of the prayer resources. Bishop Michael Kennedy has indicated his office will undertake a more comprehensive review of the Perpetual Day of Remembrance later in the year.

Thank you for your commitment to stand with our brothers and sisters who are suffering, including those who have died. Thank you too for your commitment to shine the light of Christ in our Church and neighbourhoods. Together we can be a sign of hope.
